Attention: Petitions

Dear Sirs/Mesdames:

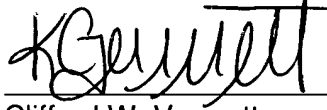

RESUBMISSION OF PETITION PURSUANT TO 37 CFR 1.102

On February 24, 2005, we filed the enclosed Petition and Declaration in the United States Patent Office along with a return receipt postcard. Subsequently, we received the return postcard from the United States Patent Office, here enclosed, stamped with a provisional patent application serial number.

A telephone call was placed to the United States Patent Office Petition Branch on March 9, 2005, which revealed that no Petition had yet been filed against the above-referenced application. Accordingly, we hereby enclose copies of the Petition and Declaration as filed on February 24, 2005 and request that same be filed against the above-referenced application.

Should any outstanding information be required, the Designated Officer is encouraged to telephone the undersigned for an early resolution of such. Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

for. Clifford W. Vermette

Dear Sir/Madam:

PETITION PURSUANT TO 37 CFR 1.102

Applicant hereby petitions that the present application be accorded special status pursuant to 37 CFR 1.102(c).

The present invention is directed to the treatment and restoration of soils and water contaminated with Polychlorinated Biphenyls (PCB's). PCB's are powerful and persistent toxins, which are difficult to remove and destroy.

By effectively and economically removing PCB's from soil and water, the present invention materially enhances the quality of the environment.

In support of this petition, a declaration by the Inventor ROD McELROY is attached.

This petition is submitted without fee on the basis of 37 CFR 1.102(c).

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Sir/Madam:

DECLARATION BY INVENTOR PURSUANT TO 37 CFR 1.102

I, ROD MCELROY, inventor of the present application hereby declare that the present application materially enhances the quality of the environment.

A great many sites are contaminated with Polychlorinated Biphenyls (PCB's).

PCB's are powerful and persistent toxins, which are difficult to remove and destroy.

Applicant's invention uses sonic energy to economically and efficiently break down PCB's in contaminated soil and water, thereby materially enhancing the environment.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.

Respectfully submitted,
